The Old Family Album

WALTER D. HOWE'S early life was not unlike that of any army boy, for his father was an army officer and when he relired was and when he retired, was a general.
Walter played with other officers' children and, of course, wanted to be soldier and an officer. He occa-ionally broke a window in some-

UNCLE WIGGILY GOES SLIDING.

By Howard Garis.

Uncle Wiggly Longears, the bunny: trees, and, fust as do otters, smother rabbit genlieman, was sitting in his hollow stump bungalow reading in his hollow stump bungalow reading in his hollow stump bungalow reading in his pager one morning, when he heard a knock on the door.

"Fil go see who it is," offered Mr. Lengears, for Nurse Jane Fuzzy, his musical lady house-keeper, had her paws in the bread dough, getting ready to make some apple dumplings.

"We'll have lost of fun, Uncle Wighling and you can alide as much as you want to," spoke Needle.

Soon they come to the beaver slide in the woods. Many of the queer animals were climbing up and riding down, some sitting on their bread down, some sitting on their bread down, some sitting on their breads or paws, just as they liked.

Are You, Too, Paying the Price?

E all seek life's comforts and pleasures, but many of us pay too high a price for them. Continued overworking, over-eating and over-drinking; late hours and loss of sleep, gradually roll, up an account that brings sickness and enforced rest. Weak kidneys is the common penalty. Daily backache, dizzy spells, headaches, rheumatic pains and kidney irregularities are warnings of kidney weakness. Don't wait! Neglect may lead to gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease. For quick relief avoid over-eating, over-drinking, overworking and other excesses, and help the weakened kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have brought new health and happiness to thousands of sufferers. Many of them live right here in El Paso. Ask your neighbor!

These Are El Paso People:

Ochoa Street.

A. Malone, 513 Ochoa St., says: "Just a short ery. I think the whole trouble was brought on ery. I think the whole trouble was brought on by the joling I get in my work as engineer on the railroad. Often when I stooped to pick up a tool, I would get such sharp pains in my back, I could hardly struighten up. Often I would get dirry and objects would flost before my eyes. The action of my kidneys was too free, too. I only took one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they corrected the trouble. The pains scross the small of my back left and the action of my Rid-neys was made normal."

Wyoming Street.

Mrs. E. L. Guerry, 1019 Wyoming St., says: "I was so bad off with kidney trouble, I could hardly get around to do my bousework. Any neavy work just played me out and the pains seary work has played me out and the pains across my midneys foll as though a red hot iron were beeing pressed against my back. I was sore and lame and would get very nervous. The least noise would upset me and when night came, I was all tired out. The action of my silbosy's annoyed me, being irregular. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills removed all the misery of kidney trouble and entirely cured me. I have been in perfect health ever since." Myrtle Avenue.

Mrs. J. W. White, 60; Myrtle Ave., says: "A od many years ago I was troubled with severe pains across the small of my back. Whenever I stooped over I had to put my hands on my hips in order to raise up. The pains were of a dull aching kind. Norvounces also bothered me and I began to worry. This pulled me down so in health, that I became all worn out. Donn's Kidney Pills did me a wonderful lot of good. Since taking Donn's I have had no trouble of that kind, but I always have a box on hand in case of emergency."

Texas Street.

John Kerrigan, 1110 Texas St., says: "Some iomingo. I was so builty off, I couldn't move and had to take to bed. No matter what way I moved, the paint were severe and there was an aching that seemed to sling to me. I heard of Duan's Kidney Pills being so good for kidney trouble I purchased come, Three baxes of Dozn's cured me entirely. Donn's Kidney Pills are a wonderful kidney remedy and I highly recommend them."

San Antonio Street.

H. W. Cole, propoletor of blacksmith shop, 1816 San Antenio St., says: "I can't praise Doan's Ridney Pills too highly, as they did me a whole lot of good. I was froubled with a hurring in the small of my back and whenever I bent over to shoe horses, it caught me to straighten up. My head would rain and during the night I was hothered by the frequent action of my kidneys. I found that after faking Dean's Kidney Fills, the paints across my back left me and I was entirely cured. Now I can bend over without fear of suffering.
